Discover your Neighborhood Natural Treasures!

Round Mountain contains almost 500 acres of combined Readington and Hunterdon parkland. Mostly wooded, it was originally used by the Lenni Lenape for encampments, and by European settlers for timber and farmland, as evidenced by the logging roads incorporated into the trail system and stone walls which were once the edges of farm fields. We will walk approximately 2 miles, from the Township’s Dobozyński Farm Park, Woodschurch Rd, with a mind to explore some of the trails not visited recently. An ideal refresher for a wintry Sunday afternoon! Your pooch on a leash is welcome to join us.
