

Mornings at the Museum

Hands-on History Programs

July 11, 18, Aug. 1, and 8

Time: 10:00 AM-12:00 PM

Mornings at the Museum is a colonial hands-on-history program for children ages 7- 12 at the Bouman-Stickney Farmstead. During each session, the children will make history-inspired crafts, learn a historic trade, play historic games, or learn an English country dance. The cost of each program is $10.00 per child, per day. Preregistration and payment are required before the first session.

You can register online Here, or through the link on our homepage: <https://www.readingtontwpnj.gov/departments/museums>, contact the Readington Museums at 908-236-2327, or email us at readingtonmuseums@gmail.com. To secure your registration, please make checks payable to Readington Township and send to PO Box 216, Stanton, NJ 08885.

GPS Location, The Bouman-Stickney Farmstead, 114 Dreahook Rd., Lebanon, NJ. Click on address for map.

Sessions Planned

July 11: Candle Making and English Dance
July 18: Tin Punch Design and Historic Games
Aug. 01: Quill Pen Writing and English Dance
Aug. 08: Pomander Making and Historic Games

